

Lorena Kloosterboer, Grano Salis, acrylic on panel, 24 x 24"

International Guild of Realism

"The mission of the International Guild of Realism is to advance realism in fine art through guild-sanctioned gallery and museum exhibitions, workshops and seminars. This organization was founded by a group of leading professional realists in 2002. Membership in the Realism Guild is by invitation and membership is based on juried selection of submitted works. Artists must demonstrate a high level of technique, composition and style within the realm of realism in order to be considered as a full member. Collectors are encouraged to browse the website to see the work of living masters as well as discover emerging artists." — Don Clapper www.realismguild.com

